CLINICIANS

Peter Infanger is the full-time Director of Music Ministries and Organist at Starkville First United Methodist Church, where he oversees choral and instrumental groups for all ages from four year olds to the oldest church members. The instrumental phase of the music program includes a brass ensemble, steel drum groups and handbells with training programs for children and youth, as well. He is also a part-time teacher of voice at Mississippi State University. Originally from New Jersey, Peter has been active in Fellowship programs in Mississippi, Georgia and now, back in Mississippi where he lives with his wife, Lynn Cochran Infanger and their Chia-Pom, Roxy.

Beverly Clement McAlilly, Director of Music Ministries and Organist at First United Methodist Church in Tupelo since 1984, oversees 4 children's choirs, youth choir, handbell choir, Chancel Choir and engages church instrumentalists and pianists in a variety of services and programs. She also designs the traditional weekly worship services. Beverly has served as organist and clinician for United Methodist and Fellowship gatherings on the state, regional and national levels and is a long-time member of The Fellowship and was honored to serve as National President from 2003-2005. Beverly is married to Steve McAlilly.

Rev. Sarah Jo Adams-Wilson is an elder in the MS Annual Conference serving the Longview-Adaton charge in the Starkville district. She has taught Worship and Sacraments for MS Course of Study and is passionate about planning vibrant and creative worship in small churches.

Craig Helmuth was born in San Juan, Puerto Rico and shortly after his parents moved to Vicksburg, MS where he grew up. He graduated from High School and went to Mississippi State University where he studied Horticulture and Floral Design. After leaving Starkville, Craig moved to Tupelo and began his career in the wholesale florist business. Craig then spent a few years in the Interior Design world. Several years ago Craig discovered working with the Downtown Tupelo Main Street Program. Working with the Farmers Market was a natural fit with his horticulture background. Craig is an active member of the First United Methodist Church where he rings hand bells, sings in the choir, and has served on the flower guild.

The Fellowship of United Methodists in Music and Worship Arts exists to assist worship leaders in creating meaningful worship experiences that bring people into deeper relationships with God and each other. The Fellowship includes worship artists, clergy, and laity involved in all aspects of worship from a variety of styles, denominations, and experiences. www.UMFellowship.org.
